OTHER BUSINESS

Director Haukap advised the Commission that there are four positions on the POST Commission that will expire on June 30, 2009. The positions are currently being held by Sam Powell representing State Law Enforcement, Mike Dayton representing an at large position, Lori Emmert representing Municipal Law Enforcement, and John Love representing Law Enforcement Training.

If a current POST Commission member would like to remain on the POST Commission, they need to send a letter of interest to Governor Freudenthal along with their current address, phone number, and email address.

A person that is not currently on the POST Commission may apply to be appointed to the POST Commission, by going to the Governor's website, completing an application and submitting the application to the Governor's office.

There being no further business, Commissioner Emmert made a motion to adjourn. Commissioner Powell seconded the motion. All were in favor and the motion carried.

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Haukap
POST Director
